

Do you sometimes question the suitability of commonly used methods in your profession? (E.g., calculation approaches)

